Patricia Raskin's positive living

changing attitudes with positive buzz

Patricia Raskin, as a producer and coach of your radio show, will show how to:

- be the best expert host giving the right answers
- OR
- find the right guests and ask the right questions
- gain listeners, ratings and sponsors.

"I never thought I would host my own radio show, much less a highly successful one. Reality far exceeded expectations. Patricia Raskin made this process possible. With her infectious tenacity she guided me from author to interviewer. I learned the business and gained the self-confidence to interview such guests as Dr. Oz and Dr. Andrew Weil just 14 weeks into my show. She is one of those rare individuals that possess honesty, integrity, and a powerful work ethic that is long since forgotten in today's industry.

This is why she is successful...this is why I have the Dr. A show!"
- Dr. Will Aguila, M.D., Host of "The Dr. A Show", thedrashow.com
